Police reform regarding treatment to accused

1695. SHRIMATI SYEDDAANWARA TAIMUR:
SHRI VIJAY J. DARDA:
Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

whether Government is aware of the observations of JNU Study Team where they have highlighted the alleged police-politician nexus in Nithari case and how the poor and common man is shabbily treated in police stations;

if so, whether in the proposed Police Reforms this aspect will be given specific importance with a view to ensuring that victims are not subjected to misbehavior and abuse because of their being poverty-stricken and also not constituting a "votebank"; and
